ARREST WARRANT AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned, of lawful age, being duly sworn, upon oath deposes and states as follows:

1. Detective Rachel Bruce is a CLEET certified Police Officer employed by the Stillwater Police Department.
2. Detective Rachel Bruce has conducted an investigation and based on the knowledge gained from that investigation of the circumstances, it appears as follows:

On September 12, 2024, at approximately 1322 hrs., Stillwater Public Schools Stillwater Police School Resource Officer Paul Blankenship took a report from a student concerning allegations of domestic assault and battery, domestic assault and battery by strangulation, sexual battery, rape by instrumentation, sodomy, attempted 1st degree rape, and kidnapping. The victim, a juvenile female identified as [REDACTED], was in a dating relationship with the suspect, Jesse Mack Butler. [REDACTED] reported the romantic relationship with Butler began in late January 2024 and ended in early March 2024. During their relationship, [REDACTED] reported Butler often physically and sexually assaulted her. [REDACTED] provided a written statement to SRO Blankenship concerning an incident that occurred in which Butler sexually battered her and attempted to rape her inside his vehicle, outside Marble Slab Creamery, 229 S. Knoblock. She also detailed an incident that occurred inside her vehicle in the Hampton Inn & Suites parking lot, 717 E. Hall of Fame Avenue. Following the initial report, I was assigned as the investigator to follow up on this case.

On September 20, 2024, [REDACTED] participated in a forensic interview at the Saville Center in Stillwater, Oklahoma. During the forensic interview, [REDACTED] disclosed the following events:

- February 2, 2024 – Butler parked his vehicle on the north side of Marble Slab Creamery, 229 S. Knoblock, following an OSU home wrestling dual they attended together. Instead of getting ice cream, which is what he initially told [REDACTED] they were going to do, he forcibly removed her clothing, aggressively pinned her down, sat on top of her, touched her breasts, bit and sucked on her chest, and inserted his fingers into her vagina against her will. Butler also attempted to have sexual intercourse with her in his vehicle. [REDACTED] reported she yelled and told him "no" repeatedly and tried to push him off of her, but was unable to overpower him. [REDACTED] reported Butler told her he was sorry for what he was about to do, but he had to do it. [REDACTED] recalled hyperventilating because Butler intended to have sexual intercourse with her and she did not want to. Before Butler could put his penis inside her, an unidentified woman walked up to the vehicle and interrupted him. [REDACTED] believed the woman heard her yelling, crying, and saying "no" from outside the vehicle. [REDACTED] detailed how this event derailed his plan to have sex with her. After this occurred, Butler drove away from the area, told [REDACTED] to stay down, and warned her if the police came that they would both be in trouble. Butler returned to his home where [REDACTED] vehicle was located. Once there, they remained in Butler's pickup where he tried again to have sexual intercourse with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] told Butler she needed to get home, but Butler pulled her on top of him and told her "You're not going until I'm finished." Butler moved [REDACTED] body back and forth on top of his with their clothing on. Butler told [REDACTED] "I want to have sex with you," but she refused and said she did not want to. [REDACTED] was able to get out of Butler's vehicle and get into her own vehicle to leave. Butler got into [REDACTED] vehicle with her and continued to try to get her to have sexual intercourse with him. [REDACTED] reported Butler told her, "I want to be inside you" and "I want you." [REDACTED] described Butler putting his hands all over her body, specifically between her legs, on her chest, and he grabbed her by the neck. [REDACTED] stated Butler also often pulled her hair during these incidents. [REDACTED] reported Butler did eventually get out of her vehicle and she was able to go home.

- Early February 2024 – Butler and [REDACTED] were parked outside Planet Fitness, 805 E. Virginia Avenue, inside her vehicle. Butler exposed his penis to her and told her to perform oral sex on him. [REDACTED] refused by saying "no" and that she wanted to go home. Butler then forced [REDACTED] head and mouth onto his penis, by grabbing the back of her head and her hair and forcing her down toward his penis. [REDACTED] began crying when he did this. While this was occurring, Butler's mother called. Butler told [REDACTED] to be quiet and not say anything or he would hurt her. Following the phone call, [REDACTED] stated she complied with Butler out of fear of what he would do to her if she did not. [REDACTED] performed oral sex on Butler until he told her to stop and ejaculated. After this occurred, Butler exited her vehicle and they both left the parking lot.
- Early February (prior to 02/14/2024) – Butler and [REDACTED] were at Butler's family home, 2309 E. Will Rogers Drive, in an upstairs movie room, when Butler pinned [REDACTED] down on the couch by sitting on top of her. He forcefully removed her clothing despite her objection. He touched her body, including her breasts and vagina, as she cried and told him to stop. This incident ended as Butler was attempting to take his underwear off to try to have sexual intercourse with her. [REDACTED] knew Butler intended to have sex with her because he made statements like "I want to be inside of you" and pushed his penis into her groin area. Butler's mother came to the door and inquired if everything was okay. [REDACTED] believed this was because she heard [REDACTED] crying and saying, "No." After this occurred, Butler and [REDACTED] left Butler's residence to take her home. When Butler took [REDACTED] home, he parked in the vicinity of [REDACTED] home, but he refused to take her to her house. Butler forced [REDACTED] to remain in his vehicle with him for a period of approximately two (2) hours and told her she could not leave until she did what he wanted her to do. Given Butler's previous aggressive behavior with her and his ability to overpower her, [REDACTED] was scared to try to exit the vehicle. Inside the vehicle, Butler grabbed [REDACTED] breasts and rubbed her between her legs. He attempted to pull her on top of him, but she refused. He grabbed her hand and forced it onto his groin area, moving her hand back and forth. [REDACTED] was able to exit Butler's vehicle after threatening to call her mother if he did not let her go. Butler also exited and followed [REDACTED] into her residence, where he continued with unwanted sexual advances. [REDACTED] reported Butler eventually left her residence between 0130 hours and 0230 hours, after receiving a text from his sister to come home.
- February 2024 – [REDACTED] and Butler were parked in her vehicle at 717 E. Hall of Fame, the Hampton Inn & Suites parking lot, behind Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers, 317 N. Perkins Road. Butler instructed [REDACTED] to get in the back seat with one of the seats laid down. He removed her pants and underwear against her will. [REDACTED] verbalized she did not want him to touch her, but he put his fingers inside her vagina. [REDACTED] told Butler to stop and that he was hurting her badly. [REDACTED] reported Butler told her he was not going to stop until he got three (3) fingers inside her, which he did. [REDACTED] moved around and tried to get him to stop, but he refused and she was scared of him and could not overpower him. When [REDACTED] got home afterward and went to the bathroom, she was bleeding from her vagina.

- February 2024 – [REDACTED] reported multiple incidents where Butler “fingered” her against her will, while in their vehicles in the Braum’s parking lot. On one occasion, [REDACTED] sibling was with them and Butler sent the sibling inside with his debit card to get something to eat, so he could touch [REDACTED]. She reportedly bled from her vagina on this occasion also. On another occasion that Butler forcefully digitally penetrated her, [REDACTED] battery to her vehicle died and her father had to come jump start it afterward.
- On or about February 29, 2024, [REDACTED] reported she was strangled to the point of unconsciousness by Jesse Butler. This occurred inside her vehicle, in the Walmart parking lot at 111 N. Perkins Road. [REDACTED] reported Butler strangled her after she would not participate in sexual acts with him. Prior to strangling her, Butler touched her breasts and other parts of her body under and over her clothing. He pinned her down inside her vehicle and straddled her, with one hand on her neck and one hand pinning her hands down over her head. [REDACTED] was scared and crying. She told Butler, “no,” but he did not listen. [REDACTED] reported she was hyperventilating and then recalled her vision being blurry and she was dizzy. She reported her head immediately hurt and she was confused about what occurred. She was scared of Butler, but when she regained consciousness Butler was laughing at her. Following this incident, [REDACTED] reported she had a handprint and injury on her neck.

In addition to these specific occasions, [REDACTED] reported Jesse Butler would regularly slap her legs or squeeze her legs very hard. She reported it would hurt and it resulted in a lot of bruises on her legs from Butler. [REDACTED] had taken a few photographs of the bruises on her legs and on her neck with her phone. However, Butler regularly went through her phone, so she was afraid to document them in that manner.

Following the forensic interview, [REDACTED] was seen by Brandi Watts, APRN, FNP-BC, SANE at the Saville Center. During the examination, [REDACTED] provided Watts with a similar account of the incidents detailed in the forensic interview. She also reported to Watts that she had urinated on herself when Butler strangled her. Since the incident, [REDACTED] has experienced times of substantial swelling, as observed by Watts through photographs provided by [REDACTED] parent, and discomfort in her neck, which she may not have experienced absent the strangulation. Through her examination, Watts found [REDACTED] had been a victim of sexual and physical abuse.

In the incidents involving [REDACTED], Jesse Butler demonstrated escalating physical and sexual violence as their relationship progressed over the term of approximately 2 months. Additionally, the Stillwater Police Department took another report of incidents reported by a second female juvenile, in which Jesse Butler utilized threat, fear, intimidation, and physical force to make her perform sexual acts and participate in sexual intercourse with him. This relationship began after [REDACTED] and Butler ended their dating relationship in March 2024. In that investigation, Butler employed similar strategies to elicit cooperation from that victim, including strangling her until unconsciousness for refusing to have sexual intercourse with him.

Based upon his birthdate, Jesse Mack Butler was 17 years old at the time these crimes were committed.

The aforementioned offense(s) occurred in Payne County, Oklahoma.

ARREST WARRANT AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned, of lawful age, being duly sworn, upon oath deposes and states as follows:

1. Detective Rachel Bruce is a CLEET certified Police Officer employed by the Stillwater Police Department.
2. Detective Rachel Bruce has conducted an investigation and based on the knowledge gained from that investigation of the circumstances, it appears as follows:

On September 12, 2024, at approximately 1322 hrs., Stillwater High School, School Resource Officer Paul Blankinship took a report from a student concerning allegations of domestic assault and battery and domestic assault and battery by strangulation. The victim, a juvenile female identified as [REDACTED] was in a dating relationship with the suspect, Jesse Mack Butler. [REDACTED] reported the romantic relationship with Butler began in late March 2024 and ended in September 2024. During their relationship, [REDACTED] reported Butler was often physically and mentally abusive and had sexually assaulted her on numerous occasions.

Following the initial report, I was assigned as the investigator to follow up on this case. During a forensic interview on September 25, 2024, [REDACTED] detailed the first incident of physical abuse by Jesse Butler. This occurred on April 22, 2024, at Sonic, 423 S. Perkins Road, in Stillwater. On this occasion, Jesse Butler reportedly attempted to pull her pants down and touch her, as they sat on the bed of his pickup truck at the drive-in restaurant. She told Butler "No", but he continued to grab and slap her buttocks and touch her breasts. Butler became angry, grabbed her arm, spun her around, and threw her on the ground. This action left scratches on her arm, which Butler laughed about. This incident demonstrated to [REDACTED] that Butler would use physical force on her, if she did not comply with his sexual demands.

[REDACTED] reported she engaged in sexual intercourse with Jesse Butler throughout the term of their relationship and did so to prevent physical aggression from him. When [REDACTED] told Butler he was hurting her, he did not care and would not stop. Because of his aggressiveness, she was scared to tell him to stop. She expressed she was scared not to do what he wanted because of how physically violent he had been with her. [REDACTED] reported Butler had left bruises on her hips from squeezing her so tightly. [REDACTED] reported the intercourse was extremely aggressive, but she reported she quickly stopped fighting it because Butler would overpower her and hurt her to get his way. [REDACTED] explained she learned what to do and not to, to avoid being hurt by Butler. According to [REDACTED], Butler would pin her down and she was physically unable to get him off of her. [REDACTED] stated this would often lead her to hyperventilate, which Butler thought was funny.

█████ described an occasion in July 2024, in which she house sat for a family friend. The dates she stayed at the residence were July 27, 2024 through August 3, 2024. The residence was located at 3402 S. Canopy Lane, in Stillwater, and in the jurisdiction of the Payne County Sheriff's Office. While she was there, Jesse Butler came to the house. Butler expressed a desire to have sexual intercourse with her at the house. █████ reported she did not want to do anything at the house. Butler became angry, came up behind her, put his arm around her neck, and strangled to unconsciousness. She could not breathe, scratched at his arms, and tried to get away, but could not free herself. █████ woke up on the floor of the living room after losing consciousness. █████ reported there were red marks across her neck after Butler strangled her. Approximately 15 minutes after strangling her, Butler initiated sexual intercourse with her. Butler had sexual intercourse three (3) or four (4) times on this date. █████ complied out of fear he would strangle her again or hurt her. █████ reported Butler strangled her on a second occasion during that week. She complied with him out of fear of him. █████ stated Butler told her he wanted to strangle her, so he could film it on his phone. Butler got on top of █████ to watch her pass out. He set up his phone to record it, so he could watch it later. █████ lost consciousness on this occasion as well. During this investigation, I obtained a search warrant for the cellular device belonging to Jesse Butler. The cell phone was downloaded to review the contents of the phone. I located a video with a date and time stamp of 08/01/2024 at 2028 hours, in which Jesse Butler can be seen strangling █████ until unconsciousness. This was the timeframe █████ reported this occurred and it appeared to have occurred in the manner she reported.

According to █████ Butler often gave her hickeys and bit her breasts, which both left marks. █████ provided a photograph of a hickey during the investigation. The hickey appeared to be on the left side of her neck. It was red/purple in color. █████ reported Butler gave her the hickey during the week she house sat at 3402 S. Canopy Lane.

█████ reported Butler wanted to have sexual intercourse every day. She described feeling coerced to comply to avoid being hurt. In addition to the sexual intercourse, █████ reported Butler forced her to perform oral sex on him. He forcefully grabbed her head and pushed her down onto his penis. Once his penis was in her mouth, he forcefully moved her head up and down, in a way that she had no control over her own head. █████ reported Butler maintained her mouth on his penis until he ejaculated and forced her to swallow his semen. █████ stated because of his violent aggression toward her, she did not attempt to fight him. █████ did not provide specific dates or locations for these occasions, as she stated it was a frequent and regular occurrence throughout their six (6) month relationship from March to September 2024.

In addition to the forced oral sex, █████ reported Butler also aggressively digitally penetrated her. One specific occasion she reported was after golfing at the Stillwater Country Club. She reported Butler "fingered" her so aggressively it caused her to bleed. █████ stated, "no matter what I told him it did not change his mind." She described holding her skirt trying to prevent him from accessing her vagina. Butler forcefully pulled her skirt down and put his fingers inside her vagina. █████ described Butler as "jamming" his fingers inside her. She reported she began to bleed, which Butler verbally shamed her for. █████ stated this incident occurred in the Walmart parking lot at 4545 W. 6th Avenue, in August 2024. She reported there were multiple other occasions when Butler digitally penetrated her to the point that she bled.

During this investigation, the Payne County Sheriff's Office gave permission for the Stillwater Police Department to investigate the incident which occurred in Payne County, due to the other crimes occurring within the jurisdiction of the Stillwater Police Department. This is also the second investigation the Stillwater Police Department has on Jesse Butler in 2024 concerning similar crimes of this nature. The other victim is a female juvenile, whom Butler was in a romantic relationship, prior to █████. He was reported by that victim to have also strangled her, sexually assaulted her, and physically assaulted her. A separate arrest affidavit was submitted on that case.

The aforementioned offense(s) occurred in Payne County, Oklahoma.

WHEREFORE, based on the above information, your Affiant prays the Honorable Court find that probable cause exists to issue an arrest warrant for Jesse Mack Butler on the following charges:

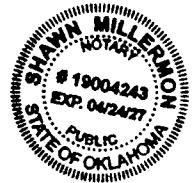

1. Domestic Assault & Battery by Strangulation, 21 O.S. 644(j) (a felony offense.)
2. Domestic Assault & Battery, 21 O.S. 644 (a misdemeanor offense.)
3. Sexual Battery, 21 O.S. 1123 (B)(1) (a felony offense.)

[REDACTED]
State's factual basis to support nolo contendre plea

In support of Counts 1, 2 and 3, State witness [REDACTED] would testify that on February 2, 2024, near 229 S. Knoblock in Stillwater, Oklahoma while parked in Defendant's pick-up truck, Defendant forcibly removed her clothing, pinned her down, sat on top of her, touched and bit her breasts and inserted his fingers into her vagina without her consent, as she repeatedly told the Defendant no and tried to push him off her. She would further testify that Defendant apologized for what he was about to do but he had to do it and was about to put his penis inside her when a pedestrian called out from the street and interrupted him.

In support of Count 4, State's witness [REDACTED] would testify that in early February 2024, while parked outside Planet Fitness in Stillwater, Oklahoma, Defendant exposed his penis and forced [REDACTED] head and mouth upon his penis as she cried.

In support Count 5, State's witness [REDACTED] would testify that in early February 2024 she was with Defendant at his home to watch moves when he forcefully removed her clothing, touched her body in intimate areas and cried for him to stop. [REDACTED] would further testify that Defendant removed his underwear and told her he wanted to be inside her as pushed into her groin area. [REDACTED] would testify this attempt by Defendant was interrupted by Defendant's mother asking from outside the room if everything was ok.

In support of Count 6, State's witness [REDACTED] would testify she was with Defendant in February 2024, in the parking lot of the Hampton Inn where Defendant removed her pants and underwear against her will and forcefully placed his fingers inside her vagina telling her he was not going to stop until he got 3 fingers inside. [REDACTED] would testify she later found blood in her vaginal area.

In support of Count 7, State's witness [REDACTED] would testify that on or about the 29th day of February, 2024, in the parking lot of WalMart, Defendant pinned her down inside her vehicle, straddled her and used his hand upon her neck to strangle her until her vision became blurry and she became dizzy and confused. [REDACTED] would further testify that subsequent to this incident she suffered pain and discomfort in her throat and has had a surgical procedure to address abnormal findings within her neck that are believed to have been exacerbated by the trauma of this event.

In support of Count 11, State's witness [REDACTED] would testify that on February 7, 2025, while a protective order was in place ordering Defendant to avoid contact with [REDACTED] Defendant voluntarily and intentionally placed himself within six feet of [REDACTED] at a school function and remained there despite the orders directing him to avoid such contact.

In support of Count 8, State's witness [REDACTED] would testify that on July 27, 2024, while she house sat for another family Defendant became angry with her, approached her from behind, placed his arm around her neck and strangled her to unconsciousness. She would further testify that during this incident she could not breathe and attempted to get away from Defendant's control

In support of Count 9, State's witness [REDACTED] would testify that during the summer of 2024, she was with Defendant at the Stillwater Country Club where he aggressively penetrated her vagina with his fingers against her will as she attempted to hold down her skirt and deny him access to her genital area. [REDACTED] would further testify that Defendant was so aggressive in his efforts she began to bleed.

In support of Count 10, a neighbor of [REDACTED] would testify that in early August 2024, she was looking outside a window of her home and observed Defendant forcefully walking [REDACTED] to a vehicle in the driveway with his arm around her neck, as [REDACTED] appeared to be resisting those efforts.

I never imagined I'd be standing here needing to explain the harm someone did to me, or trying to make people understand the damage that has been caused.

You didn't just hurt me physically you took pieces of my safety, my peace, and my sense of who I was. What you did wasn't just violence. It was betrayal, fear, shame, humiliation, and pain layered over and over. And it didn't stop when the assaults ended. It followed me every single day afterward.

I've had to carry this weight while going to school, trying to act like I'm okay. I've woken up from nightmares that make me feel like I'm being attacked all over again. I've had to explain bruises, explain silence, explain why I started isolating from people who loved me. You didn't just strangle me with your hands, you strangled my voice, my joy, my ability to feel safe in my own body.

And even now, months later, I still don't feel safe. Jesse didn't just abuse me, he threatened me. Over and over again, he told me that if I ever told anyone what he was doing, he would kill me. He would kill my family. He would kill himself. He even threatened to hurt or kill his own family. Do you know what it's like to live with that kind of fear at 17 years old? To walk into your house wondering if today's the day someone follows you home? To be afraid that opening your mouth could cost someone else their life?

Those threats silenced me just as much as his hands ever did. I was terrified. Every time I thought about telling someone, I heard his voice in my head reminding me that if I spoke up, he would be there to silence me and I believed him. Because he had already shown me what he was capable of. He showed me when he forced himself on me while laughing at my tears. He showed me when he put his hands around my neck and squeezed until I passed out in the Walmart parking lot.

When I finally did get the courage to speak, I did so knowing I might be putting my family in danger. That's a decision no one should have to make. But I had to.

and I hope that one day you actually face what you've done. Not just get punished, but really face it. Every time you ignored my "no," every time you forced yourself on me, every time you laughed while I cried. I hope you understand how much it haunts me.

You tried to make me feel powerless, but I'm taking that power back today. I will not let your violence define who I am. I'm a survivor, not your victim. You didn't destroy me, even though you tried to.

But I won't pretend I'm okay. I am still healing. I am still afraid. I still carry these memories in my body and my mind. And while I may learn to live with them, I will never forget what you did.

I will never forget Marble Slab when you pinned me down, touched my body without permission, while I begged you to stop. I screamed "no" over and over, and you ignored it. I will never forget what it felt like when you pinned me inside your truck and said, "You're not going anywhere until I finish," like I was just something to be used.

I will never forget the way you threatened me when your mother called. You made me lie. I wanted to scream for help, and I couldn't. Because I didn't know what you'd do next. I will never forget the Planet Fitness parking lot and the panic, the way I felt like my body didn't belong to me anymore.

I will never forget the night you strangled me unconscious because I said no. That moment changed my life. A medical professional later told me that I was just thirty seconds away from dying. Thirty seconds. If you had kept your hands on my neck just a little longer, I wouldn't be standing here today. That wasn't just a scare, it was a near-death experience. You didn't just hurt me, you nearly killed me.

And because of that one act of violence, I had to have surgery on my neck. The damage you caused wasn't invisible, and it wasn't temporary. The pain lingered for months. And now, the scar is something I'll carry for the rest of my life, a permanent reminder of what you did to me.

To Jesse's parents, I don't know what you knew. I don't know if you heard me crying through the walls or noticed how your son treated me when no one was looking. But I hope you hear this now. Your son hurt me in ways that cannot be undone. And I need you to understand that your silence, your protection of him, or even your denial, that would hurt too. Because someone should have stopped this. Someone should have seen the bruises and the fear.

This statement is not just for the court. It's for Jesse. It's for his family. It's so none of you can pretend you didn't know what he did, or how deeply he broke me.

And for the people in this room who are deciding his punishment, I need you to remember that what happened to me wasn't only abuse or strangulation, it was nearly attempted murder. So, I ask that you hold him accountable to the fullest. Thirty more seconds, and this would not be my statement. It would be my mother's, because I would not have survived. I survived what he did, but I will never be the same.

First and foremost, this statement isn't about revenge. It's about responsibility. It's about speaking the truth in a room where it must be heard clearly, fully, and without apology.

Jesse is responsible for what he did. And that responsibility doesn't disappear because of his age or because facing it is uncomfortable. The truth is still the truth, even when people would rather not acknowledge it. He may barely qualify as a youthful offender under the law. But my daughter, who is younger than him, has been more than old enough to live with the full weight of his choices. She did not have the privilege of "youthful offender" as a shield.

What Jesse did was not a mistake. It was not immaturity. It was deliberate and it was manipulative. He violated her trust, her boundaries, and her safety.

[REDACTED] has had to fight for every step of her healing. She has had to walk through hallways in a school that never truly protected her, surrounded by people who chose silence or convenience over advocacy and support. She's has had to deal with anxiety. She has experienced triggers in places that once felt safe. She has spent this year learning how to live with trauma caused by someone else's choices. It has changed the way she will view trust, relationships, and love for the rest of her life.

And while she has done this with grace, strength, and determination, we will never mistake that for ease. Every "normal" moment has been something she's had to fight for. She's never asked for pity. She's never tried to play the victim. What she has survived is something no child should ever have to go through. And what she lost because of Jesse will never fully be restored.

This summer, while other girls planned for senior celebrations, she was preparing for surgery. A surgery directly caused by the injury Jesse inflicted. That is not symbolic pain. That is not emotional fallout. That is a medical fact of the physical harm he caused.

She is not broken. She is not fragile. She is strong, but the cost of that strength is something most won't see. The missed school days. The sleepless nights. The therapy appointments. The anxiety attacks. The physical pain. The battle to keep showing up while carrying something she never asked for.

While she has fought to move forward, there's something we cannot ignore: the silence of Jesse's family.

To Jesse's parents: your silence has been deafening. You had every opportunity to lead with truth, to teach your son what it means to take ownership of harm. You had the chance to model responsibility, to support the healing process in even the smallest of ways. But you didn't. You chose to protect your family image over integrity. Your silence sent a message to my daughter that the truth didn't matter as much as appearances. That your son's reputation mattered more than her reality. That is not parenting. That is enabling.

This process has not brought our family peace. But it has brought us a new purpose. We will never let our daughter believe that her pain is something to be minimized for someone else's convenience. We will never let her think that silence is strength, or that her voice doesn't matter.

Our family does not agree with this plea. We want the record to clearly reflect that this plea deal was not made in the best interest of the victims, but in the best interest of Jesse. The convenience and leniency granted to him do not erase the harm he caused. My daughter will continue live with the weight of his choices every single day, and yet the system has offered him considerations she was never granted. What Jesse did matters. What his family failed to do matters.

Now it is in the hands of this court to make sure accountability is not avoided. We ask that you hold him fully responsible for his actions. Not a slap on the wrist while allowing him to avoid facing true accountability. Not just counseling, because my daughter, who is the victim not the perpetrator, has been attending counseling for nearly a year. That is not punishment. Not only for the justice my daughter deserves, but to prevent another child from ever enduring what [REDACTED] has had to survive

[REDACTED] is a survivor of someone else's decisions. And we will never stop honoring the strength it's taken for her to rise above it.

[REDACTED]

As a father, one of my greatest fears has always been that one of my children would be harmed in some way, that I would be unable to protect them. What Jesse has done both emotionally and physically to my daughter will never be forgotten. Watching my daughter suffer through this abuse has left me feeling helpless, unable to offer her the reassurance that everything will be okay or that she can easily move forward with her life.

My only hope throughout this painful and exhausting process was that Jesse would be held accountable and that the court system would deliver justice. For a long time, that hope gave us strength to endure the emotional toll. But in the past 72 hours, that hope has been shaken. We were told that, as the family of the victim, we have no say in what plea deal is accepted. All the time of gathering evidence and reliving the pain were for nothing. That one individual alone decides how Jesse will—or will not—be punished.

The hardest thing that any victim can do is to speak up and decide enough is enough. [REDACTED] hope was that by doing her part in dealing justice the court system would do the rest. It feels like she is being failed by the very system put in place to punish offenders. That her truth is being discounted as nothing more than boys will be boys mentality. This sends a dangerous message to future victims. That sometimes speaking up and doing the right thing isn't enough.

The reality is this: my daughter, [REDACTED] will carry the weight of this trauma for the rest of her life. Jesse, by contrast, may face nothing more than a year of therapy before moving on. No parent could accept such a small consequence for actions that have caused such deep and lasting harm. Without a fitting punishment, this behavior risks becoming reinforced. This is not just about the trauma he has created—it is about preventing a dangerous pattern from continuing in the future. I respectfully ask the court to consider the lifelong impact on my daughter, and to hold Jesse fully accountable for his actions. Only through meaningful consequences can justice be served, and only then can healing truly begin.

[REDACTED]

Victim Impact Statement

Your Honor,

My name is [REDACTED] and I am [REDACTED] mother. I'm here today to share how deeply this has impacted my daughter and our entire family.

What happened to [REDACTED] has changed the course of her life. Before this, she was a joyful, confident, and an outgoing young woman. She was enjoying High School friendships and had recently started driving. She had stepped away from [REDACTED] and we were both enjoying a more relaxed, beautiful chapter of life.

Then everything changed.

This young man was her first boyfriend—he appeared shortly after [REDACTED] just as we had allowed her to begin dating. He presented himself as a good Christian boy: respectful and polite. She went to his baseball games, he took her to the OSU sporting events, they played golf and pickleball together, he attended church with our family, brought her flowers, and came to our family game nights. He said all the right things—not only to [REDACTED] but to us as well. We were all completely blindsided.

He was manipulating her—and us. What he did to [REDACTED] was a complete violation of her trust, her innocence, and her safety. He took advantage of her vulnerability and placed her in situations no child should ever have to endure. His actions were not mistakes. They were deliberate, harmful, and deeply damaging. This past year has been agonizing. Just when we thought we had learned the worst of it, more painful details emerged.

Instead of finding comfort in the justice system, we were left disappointed. The plea deal arrangement made by District Attorney Debbie Vincent left our family feeling powerless. She had assured us that she would not allow a plea deal unless he was willing to plead guilty. “No contest” and “guilty” doesn’t feel the same to the victims. She told us [REDACTED] would be involved in shaping the terms of any deal that was made. She told us that the protective order could be extended as part of the plea deal. None of that happened.

Instead, a deal was struck before the preliminary hearing—allowing him to be charged as a Youthful Offender in exchange for a “no contest” plea and minimal consequences that end in less than a year on his 19th Birthday. On that same day, this record will disappear like it never happened.

Your Honor, we are heartbroken. It feels as though justice for [REDACTED]—and for the other victim—was traded away. This young man is being shielded from real accountability, while the trauma he caused will follow our daughters for the rest of their lives. That is not justice, and it does not protect our children or our community.

We are not people who take our concerns to court lightly. We are law-abiding citizens who pay our taxes, raise our children with strong values, and trust in the justice system to protect the innocent. We have never asked anything of this system—until now.

So today, Your Honor, I am asking you to see [REDACTED] not as a case file, but as a real person—a bright, kind, faithful young woman whose life has been forever altered by someone she trusted. Her first boyfriend. I ask you to consider the full weight of this impact as you are making decisions in this case today.

Thank you for your time and for considering my words on behalf of my daughter and our family.
